Note 1—The Dwelling Houses are to be numbered in the order of visitation, and this number should be placed on the outside of each dwelling house. The number of the dwelling house next visited should be numbered next following, and so on until all are numbered. Where two or more families occupy the same dwelling house, the number of the dwelling house will be repeated, and the families will be numbered 1, 2, 3, &c., in the order of visitation.

Note 2—The Families are to be numbered in the order of visitation. Where a family occupies more than one dwelling house, the number of the first dwelling house occupied by such family will be given, and the number of dwelling houses occupied by such family will be stated in column 3.

Note 3—Under the head of Profession, Trade, or Occupation, the profession, trade, or occupation of each person, if any, is to be stated. Persons employed at home in manufacturing, or in any mechanical pursuit, are to be described as such, and not merely as "Manufacturer" or "Laborer." Persons having no occupation are to be returned as at home, or with the word "None," as the case may be.

Note 4—Column 9. For all persons who have been unemployed during any portion of the year ending May 31, 1880, the number of months that they have been unemployed is to be stated in this column. Thus, a person employed regularly during seven months in the year, and unemployed during the remaining five months, is to be returned as unemployed five months. Persons who have been employed only a portion of each day, as is frequently the case with persons working by the hour, are not to be returned as unemployed.

Note 5—Column 10. Every person who has been at school within the year ending May 31, 1880, three months or more, is to be returned as having attended school.

Note 6—Column 11. Every person who cannot read a book or newspaper intelligently in any language is to be returned as unable to read.

Note 7—Column 12. Every person who cannot write a legible sentence in any language is to be returned as unable to write.

Note 8—Column 13. Every person who is deaf and dumb, blind, insane, or idiotic is to be returned as such.

Note 9—Column 14. The State, Territory, or country in which each person was born is to be stated.

Note 10—Columns 15 and 16. The State, Territory, or country in which the father and mother of each person were born is to be stated. If born in the United States, the name of the State or Territory is sufficient; if of foreign birth, the country only is sufficient.
